It's fall again, and I'm once again late with the newsletter – unbelievable how fast time passes. I'm trying to get my garden cleaned up for the winter – how depressing! It seems like I just started spring planting.

September was very eventful – we had a wonderful class held by Nancy Blaauw with her beautiful pumpkin project. Everyone enjoyed all the free stash wood and books that were piled up everywhere. Grateful thanks to Lynne Deptula for the beautiful items she donated to the grab fest. Everything found a new home – thank you everyone for taking all that stuff!

October's class will be held by Bonnie Phebus with a lovely graphic design. We will be holding election of officers, and we have important items on the agenda. We have two new officers appointed to finish out 2021.

November's class is an adorable seasonal Quik-Wood project taught by Lora Haberstroh.

Our annual Christmas party will be held December 11 at P.F. Chang's on Beltline, so be sure to save the date. More information is below.
